

About Mark Moses

Entrepreneur, Founding Partner of CEO Coaching International

Mark Moses is a founding partner at CEO Coaching International, where he and his team help businesses and individuals increase profitability, drive margin expansion and gain accountability in order to meet business objectives and reach new heights.

Moses is a highly successful serial entrepreneur and top business coach who advises entrepreneurs and leaders toward extraordinary results. His firm CEO Coaching International coaches more than 100 CEOs and entrepreneurs in nine countries. He regularly facilitates annual planning sessions for companies, and is also a passionate and energized keynote speaker who covers topics that include what it takes to be a top performing CEO, building the life that you want, overcoming adversity in your business and your life and how to build a $100 million company.

In his new book, Make Big Happen: How to Live, Work, and Give Big (Advantage Media Group, Feb. 9, 2016), Mark says if you ask better questions, you will get better results. The book revolves around four critical questions that every business leader should explore on their journey through business and life, and explains how these questions are the foundation of every fast-growing, profitable business and how answering them in the right way can lead to exceptional results.

Moses started his first company when he was 19 years old and graduated with a business degree from Wilfrid Laurier University in 1987. Since then, he has successfully built and sold two companies: Student Painters and Platinum Capital Group.

He has been president of both EO and YPO Orange County chapters and served on the Board of the Children's Hospital of Orange County for six years. He has won Ernst & Young's Entrepreneur of the Year award and the Blue Chip Enterprise award for overcoming adversity. The last company he sold was ranked No. one fastest-growing company in Los Angeles as well as No. 10 on the Inc. 500 list of fastest growing private companies in the U.S.

Aside from his practice, Moses is a devoted father and enjoys spending time with his wife and family in his free time. He has also completed 12 full-distance Ironman Triathlons including the Hawaii Ironman World Championship five times. In November of 2011, Moses won his division at Ironman Arizona, qualifying him for his 5th Hawaii Ironman. He also won the U.S. National Squash Championship in 1992. In 2015, he and his son Mason completed the White Continent Marathon in Antarctica.
